

Red Ribbon Week

October 23 – October 27

Mixed-Up Monday: Drugs and I Don't Mix

On Monday, October 23rd, all students will receive a snack of Chex Mix from Student Council. Students are allowed to wear appropriate mismatched shoes, socks, and a shirt with the pants/shorts uniform of the day.

Drugs Are No Joke

On Tuesday, October 24th, students will receive a Laffy Taffy candy from Student Council. Jokes will also be read over the intercom throughout the day.

*If any student would like to share an appropriate joke to possibly be read this day, please submit the joke to Mrs. Melancon or Mrs. Escobar prior to Tuesday, October 24th.

My Character Counts, I am Drug Free

On Wednesday, October 25th, students are asked to donate a new hard cover or chapter book, on his/her grade level. These book donations will be used to provide reading material for children in Children's Hospital. If a donation of a book is made, students can dress up as their favorite movie or book character. Remember to keep the dress up theme appropriate.

My Future is Bright: Be Drug Free

On Thursday, October 26th, the student body can wear a high school/college shirt or dress to represent a professional career of choice. (Ex: doctor, teacher, police officer)

The day will conclude with a school wide rosary on the back porch.

Give Drugs the Boot

On Friday, October 27th, AOL PTO is kicking off our shoe drive. Students are asked to donate a pair of any size, used, but in good condition shoes. If a pair of shoes are donated, students can wear a pair of boots (cowboy/girl, shrimp, winter, etc.) with his/her uniform of the day.

*AOL's PTO shoe drive will continue throughout the week of October 30 – November 3. Bring in any size, used, good condition shoes to be donated for the PTO's shoe collection. These shoes will be turned in for money for our school.
